§ 3652. Investment of moneys in reserve funds. The school authorities of any school district or the district treasurer or other officer having custody of the moneys, if the school authorities shall delegate such duty to him, may invest moneys in any fund established pursuant to this article in the manner provided by section eleven of the general municipal law.