§ 3705. Apportionment of gospel funds. It shall be lawful for the supervisor of any town having money arising from the sale of gospel lands, and known as gospel funds, to apportion such funds among the several school districts of his respective town when authorized under the provisions of section thirty-seven hundred six.