§ 381. Cooperation and assistance from other state agencies. The state education department, the state department of transportation, the dormitory authority, the state housing finance agency, the division of the budget, the office of general services and all other state agencies shall cooperate with and assist the fund in the fulfillment of its corporate purposes and in the exercise of its corporate powers under this article and may render such services to the fund within their respective functions as the fund may reasonably request.