§ 407. Application to certain districts. The provision of section four hundred four of this article shall apply to union free school districts and to districts organized under special laws; and the trustees of such districts and the boards of education organized under special laws shall be and are hereby clothed with all the powers vested in trustees in the three preceding sections.