§ 4102. Rights of Indians and of state shall be guarded. Any contract which may be entered into with Indians for the use or occupancy of any land for school grounds, sites or buildings, shall provide proper protection for the title of the Indians to their lands, and shall reserve to the state the right to remove or otherwise dispose of all improvements made at the expense of the state.