§ 4351. New York state school for the deaf. The New York state school for the deaf is hereby established under the jurisdiction and control of the education department.