§ 5102. Regulations. The commissioner shall promulgate regulations to carry out the provisions of this article. Such regulations shall, among other things, specify the programs, services, or functions that are eligible for funding under this article, including, but not limited to, instruction, administration, counseling, support services, and curriculum development.