§ 523. State supervision. The operation of the retirement system shall be subject to the supervision of the state department of financial services.