§ 6001. College continued. The New York State College of Forestry at Syracuse University shall hereafter be known as the State University of New York College of Environmental Science and Forestry. The college shall be subject to the supervision of the state university trustees.