§ 6307. Establishment of state-aided four-year colleges. 1. Upon recommendation of the state university trustees, counties or adjoining cities not now adequately served by any four-year college programs, may be empowered singly or jointly to establish and operate four-year college programs. Such colleges shall be financed and administered in a manner similar to that provided for community colleges herein.