§ 6354. Applicability. This article shall apply to all institutions of higher education and any business or trade school in the state.