§ 6501-b. Affirmation of applications. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, any application required by this title to be filed with the department may, in lieu of being certified or sworn under oath, be subscribed by the applicant and affirmed by the applicant as true under penalties of perjury.