§ 695-g. Scholarships and financial aid. Monies in a family tuition account shall not be used toward the calculation of New York state financial aid under a financial aid program administered by the state.