§ 8302. Signature of a certified interior designer. All original final interior design documents, plans and specifications, prepared by a certified interior designer or by a full-time or part-time subordinate employed under his or her supervision, shall be manually signed by the certified interior designer.