 § 13-108. Special provisions as to the time for holding a primary election in the city of New York in the year nineteen hundred eighty-one. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this chapter, the times fixed for the annual primary election for the city of New York for the party position of assembly district leader in the county of New York and certain proceedings relating thereto shall be as follows:

1. The last day for filing the statement of party positions to be filled at the primary election as provided for in section 2-120 of this chapter shall be the sixteenth day of June.

2. The first day for signing designating petitions for primary elections shall be the sixteenth day of June.

3. The first day to sign petitions for opportunity to ballot in primary elections without naming a candidate shall be the seventh day of July.

4. The primary election shall be held on the twenty-second day of September.

* NB Expired December 31, 1981