§ 6-100. Nominations and designations; generally. Nomination and designation of candidates for election to public office or party position are governed by this article.