§ 6-110. Party nominations; public office. All other party nominations of candidates for offices to be filled at a general election, except as provided for herein, shall be made at the primary election.