§ 15-0303. Examination of books, records and accounts.

For the purpose of ascertaining material information relevant to the function of the powers and duties of the department, the department may by its members, authorized agents or representatives freely examine at any time the books, records and accounts of any holder of a license, permit or other authorization, issued pursuant to this article.