§ 16-0101. State participation in federal flood control program.

It is hereby declared that the state deems it advisable to participate in a federal program of flood control in the state of New York in the manner hereinafter described.