§ 16-0109. Projects authorized.

The projects herein authorized consist in general of all projects for flood control lying wholly or partially within the state of New York which have been or may be approved by the federal government and for which federal funds shall be made available.