§ 17-1301. Approval of marine toilet pollution control devices and establishing effluent standards therefor.

The department shall have all the functions, powers, obligations and duties, regarding approval of marine toilet pollution control devices and establishing effluent standards therefor, provided for in section 33-c of the Navigation Law.