§ 19-0105. Declaration of purpose.

It is the purpose of this article to safeguard the air resources of the state from pollution by: (1) controlling or abating air pollution which shall exist when this artcle shall be enacted and (2) preventng new air pollution, under a program which shall be consistent with the declaration of policy above stated and in accordance with the provisions of this article.