§ 21-0711. Prior to project approval.

No project requiring a license, permit or other approval by any agency or officer of this state, or any subdivision thereof, shall be given any such license, permit, or approval, if such project requires approval of the Delaware river basin commission pursuant to the compact and such has not been given.