§ 27-2501. Definitions.

1. As used in this title, the term "creosote" means a substance obtained from the high temperature treatment of coal and coal tar and that is used primarily as a wood preservative.

2. As used in this title, the term "marina" shall have the same meaning as defined in section thirty-three-c of the navigation law.