§ 40-0115. Sales of hazardous substances.

1. The manufacturer or distributor of a hazardous substance must provide the operator of the storage facility which purchases such substances with technical guidance and recommended practices for the storage and handling of such substances.

2. No delivery of a hazardous substance may be made to a storage facility that is not registered pursuant to section 40-0107 of this article.