§ 71-1207. Rights of aggrieved individuals.

The provisions of this title shall not affect, impair or in any manner restrict or limit the rights of any person seeking damages arising out of a violation of article twenty-two of this chapter.