§ 159-c-1. Training; live fire conditions. 1. In the training of firefighters under live fire conditions no person or persons shall play the role of a victim.

2. For purposes of this section, a live fire condition is any unconfined open flame or device that can propagate fire to a building, a training tower, an acquired structure or other combustible material.

3. A violation of this section shall be punishable by a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars paid for by the fire department conducting such training.
