§ 159-h. Limitation of administrative costs. Not more than five percent of the community services block grant funds received by the state shall be retained for administration at the state level.