§ 160-aa. Transitional licensing. Consistent with the intent and purpose of this article, and without the disapproval of the appraisal subcommittee of the federal financial institutions examination council, the board may prescribe requirements for transitional licenses which shall expire no later than January first, nineteen hundred ninety-three.