§ 214. Establishment of training school. The superintendent may establish and maintain a training school and make rules and regulations for the conduct thereof; provided, however, that such regulations shall provide that the children or surviving spouse of a state police officer killed in the line of duty shall, if otherwise qualified, have a prior and preferred right over other applicants to appointment to such training school or academy.