§ 222. Radio communication system. The superintendent may establish a system of police radio communication and for such purpose may purchase or lease all necessary equipment for the operation thereof within the appropriation.