 § 259-t. Permitted activities. Where any person is granted presumptive release, parole, conditional release, release to post-release supervision or any other type of supervised release, the state board of parole shall not deem a person to be in violation of and the state board of parole shall not terminate such granted presumptive release, parole, conditional release, release to post-release supervision or any other type of supervised release solely because such person engaged in bona fide work for an employer, including travel time to or from bona fide work, during curfew times set by conditions of probation, parole, presumptive release, conditional release or release to post-release supervision. For purposes of this section, bona fide work is work performed as an employee for an employer, as defined in section two of the labor law.

* NB There are 2 § 259-t's