§ 31. Divisions. There shall be in the executive department the following divisions:

1. The division of the budget.

2. The division of military and naval affairs.

3. The office of general services.

4. The division of state police.

5. The division of housing.

6. The division of alcoholic beverage control.

7. The division of human rights.

8. The division of homeland security and emergency services.

9. Office of information technology services.

The governor may establish, consolidate, or abolish additional divisions and bureaus.