§ 324. Fellowships. The institute may establish fellowships, through the provisions of financial assistance in the form of stipends, grants or loans or other assistance, to individuals to enable them to pursue scholarly inquiry and study other appropriate forms of strategies for peace and nonviolent conflict resolution. No such assistance shall be provided for a period in excess of two years.