§ 46. Office of welfare inspector general. 1. There is hereby created in the department of audit and control an office of welfare inspector general. The head of the office shall be the welfare inspector general, who shall be appointed by the comptroller, by and with the advice and consent of the senate.

2. The comptroller shall fix the compensation of the welfare inspector general within the amounts appropriated therefor.