§ 523-g. Review of policies concerning children. In addition to other powers and duties specified in this subtitle, the office of the ombudsman may recommend changes in office policies and regulations concerning children to improve services or to correct systemic problems concerning services to children in the juvenile justice system.