§ 527-k. Technical services and assistance. The division may provide technical services and assistance or contract to provide technical services and assistance to eligible applicants to comply with the provisions and intent of this title.