§ 527-m. Liability on obligations. Except for obligations which the division or New York state urban development corporation assumes by contract for the construction, rehabilitation and development period of any project, neither the division, the New York state urban development corporation nor the state shall have any responsibility or liability as to construction, rehabilitation, operation, maintenance, repair or use of youth center facilities unless otherwise specifically provided by law.