§ 617. Manufactured home parks to be consistent. Manufactured home parks may be established or existing parks expanded consistent with the provisions of this title and consistent with the identical development specification and standards, including general aesthetic and architectural standards, applicable to other single-family dwelling developments in the municipality in which the park is, or is to be, located.