§ 7. Limited operation of holiday. The governor in issuing any proclamation appointing any day as a holiday or as a day of thanksgiving or fasting and prayer or other religious observance, under section twenty-four of the general construction law is authorized, in his discretion, to limit or restrict the effect and operation of such proclamation to any city or county to be designated by him in such proclamation.