§ 72. When costs payable to relator. Where security is given by relator in an action brought by the attorney-general on the relation or information of a person having an interest, all costs and disbursements taxed in favor of the plaintiff shall be payable to the relator.