 § 882. Pre-application conferences. The office, at the request of any person proceeding in accordance with section eight hundred eighty-one of this article, may conduct a pre-application conference, pending the submission of application forms, in which the interested state agencies shall participate in order to clarify the nature and scope of their interest and provide guidance to the person in relation to permit application review processes and in order to coordinate agency actions and data compilation or submission regarding permit requirements. Other state agencies having responsibilities for business promotion and regulation may participate in any such conference at the discretion of the director.
