§ 1068. Action on return from agency or institution. If a person is returned to the court under section one thousand sixty-seven of this part, the court may make any order that might have been made at the time of the order of placement.