§ 118. Seal. The seal of the family court consists of an engraving of the arms of the state of New York and the words "Family Court of the State of New York" followed by the name of the county in which the family court using the seal is located.