§ 162. Waiting room for children. So far as possible a waiting room with a competent person in charge shall be provided for the care of children brought to the family court under this act.