§ 229. Cooperation by employer. Employers are authorized and required to report to the court, when so requested, full information as to the earnings of a petitioner or respondent in a proceeding under articles four or five of this act.