§ 432. Procedure before court. The court before whom the respondent is taken under section four hundred thirty-one may require an undertaking to appear or in default thereof may place the respondent in custody until the hearing commences.