§ 528. Procedure before court. The court before whom the respondent is taken under section five hundred twenty-seven may require an undertaking to appear or in default thereof may place the respondent in custody.