§ 547. Substitution of trustee. The court, on motion of a party or otherwise, may at any time for good cause shown substitute another trustee for the one designated and acting.