§ 580-308. Duty of certain state officials. (a) If the attorney general determines that the support enforcement agency is neglecting or refusing to provide services to an individual, the attorney general may order the agency to perform its duties under this article or may provide those services directly to the individual.

(b) The commissioner of temporary and disability assistance may determine that a foreign country has established a reciprocal arrangement for child support with this state and take appropriate action for notification of the determination.
